Church; Benediction by the candidate. Mr. Robinson has been a student at Wayland Seminary, -a colored Theological schoolin Washington, for several years, and comes to his new charge well recommended.

THE WEATHER. - Since three o'dlock this morning the rain has been pouring down in tor rents, and the streets and gutters have been min iature rivers. The rain is accompanied by a stiff easterly gale, which makes it all the more driving and disagreeable, and pedestrianism has been confined to those who could not help them: selves. About three o'clock this evening the wind shifted around to the west, and for a time blew a perfect hurricane, while the rain came down like another deluge. The effects of the gale this afternoon along the wharves done near being very serious, and much alarm wes felt for a time. The tide had risen very high, and, Thomas Browden, loaded with coal for Washington, which was lying at anchor in the stream, was blown ashore on the flats, but Julia A. Ward, lying at Reed's what, being carried out into the stream, but was an accident at the Midland depot, which came fortunately brought to at the end of the near proving fatal. He was on top of the last wharf, and brought back to her berth. Several long boats and small craft were also broken loose, but seenred from damage. The tile commenced to fall at 4 o'clock, and fears of further damage have been allayed. Some and both of his legs were badly mashed and of the merchants on the wharf removed their cut in several places, but fortunately no bones goods in anticipation of a flood.

COMPLIMENTARY .- A meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners of the District of Columbia was held last night, and a report received from Chief Engineer Cronin on the Patent Office fire.

Commissioner Collins offered the following, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Board of Fire Commissioners of the District of Columbia are tendered to the members of the fire departments of our sister cities, Baltimore, Md., and Alexandria, Va., who generously and promptly responded to the appeal of the au thorities here for aid in suppressing the disas trous fire at the Patent Office on the 24th inst., and gave such valuable assistance outtheir ar rival in battling with the conflugrations at the first named place and at the livery stables on O street. It is no reflection on our own small fire department to say that but for the generous and efficient help of the Baltimore and Alex andria firemen both fires might have been much more disastrous. Resolved, That the Secretary of the Board transmit copies of these resolutions to the heads of the fire departments of Baltimore and game protective association was held at the of-

CHARGED WITH FRAUD. - The Washington

Star of yesterday says:

"Rev. L. W. Brooks, colored, formerly a member of Beulah Baptist Church, of Alexandria, Va., but long since excluded from fellowship in that church, has been travelling through the Northern States representing himself as authorized to collect money for the benefit of the above mentioned church. He has been in Trenton, N. J. At a meeting of the deacons of the church held recently, he was denounced as a fraud, and Deacons John Clark. William Green and John Wallace were appointed a committee to warn the public against the fraudulent representations of Brooks.' The members of the church in this city de clare the above statement to be false, and to have been published by those members who were declared excluded from the Beulah Church during the troubles there last fall, which exclusion was subsequently sustained by the Courts. Rev. L. W. Brooks resides in this city and was sent ou: by the church authorities to solicit aid for them.

ACCIDENT .- This morning about eight o'clock Mr. William O. Henderson met with car of a freight train, which was backing down the yard, and while putting on the brake the chain broke, throwing him from the car and between the rails. The car passed over him, were broken. He was also knocked senseless by the fall but speedily recovered his conscious ness. The injured man was at once removed to | and Nostoff on the Don. Mrs. Wilking boarding house, near by, where Dr. Lewis dressed his wounds and made him as comfortable as possible. His injuries are not considered dangerous, but his escape from instant death was almost miraculous. Mr. Henderson is a son of Fenton M. Henderson, esq., of Leesburg, and has many friends in this city who will regret to learn of his bad fortune.

A Sistova dispatch dated Wednesday says: The Romanians having pushed their fourth garallel close to the second Grivitz; redoubt an attack is expected in two or three days. Two brigades of riflemen and a strong force of cavalry have been sent west to interceptifresh col umns which, it is reported, have already started from Orchanie.'

A Sefit dispatch says Chefket Pasha has been largely reinforced by men from the Schipka army. He has commenced a forward move ment, and decisive fighting, with Osman Pasha's co operation, is expected shortly, Prodigious quantities of munitions are going to the front.

A special dispatch dated Karajal, Wednesday, says: "A general attack was made on Moukhtar Pasha's whole line this morning. Gen. Melikoff was in command, under the orders from the Grand Duke Michael. The key of Mukhtar's position, which was defended by only a single battalion, was attacked on three sides and captured. The battalion was annihilated. The Turks tried to recepture this point, but were repulsed. The further progress of the Russians was insignificant, but hopes are entertained of cutting off Mukhtar from Kars. The Russians bivenacked on the conquered positions. Fighting is sure to recommence early to-morrow. About fifteen hundred Russians were killed and wonn led. The Turks were mis led by their spies, and only expected to be attacked on the flink."
